

INAUGURAL KEVIN J. ROBINSON FORUM FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE AND PUBLIC HEALTH:

“Health Care Disparities to be Addressed Moving Forward”

VADM Regina M. Benjamin, MD, MBA

18th Surgeon General of the United States Public Health Service

Keynote Address

Monday, April 11, 2011

5:15 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Bryn Mawr College

Goodhart Hall , McPherson Auditorium

(free and open to the public)

Disparities in health status, health care quality, and access to health services exist across our country in urban, suburban, and rural communities. US Surgeon General Dr. Regina Benjamin, along with our panel of experts, will examine the challenges and complexities of our nation's health inequalities. This Forum will provide an opportunity to explore strategies to ensure greater access and quality services for all.

Dr. Regina M. Benjamin, as America's Doctor, provides the public with the best scientific information available on how to improve their health and the health of the nation. Dr. Benjamin is the first physician under age 40 and the first African- American woman to be elected to the American Medical Association Board of Trustees.

Dr. Benjamin received her MD degree from the University of Alabama, Birmingham, and an MBA from Tulane University, as well as eleven honorary doctorates. She attended Morehouse School of Medicine and completed her family medicine residency in Macon, Georgia.
